25X1

Tests conducted among the officers of the Red Army after the conclusion of hostilities determined that many officers did not possess enough theoretical military knowledge. As a result a number of higher military schools have therefore been opened of which the following schools are known to be in operation:

1. The M.V. Frunze Higher Ground Forces Command Academy in Moscow has some 2,000 students. Its director is twice Hero of the Soviet Union, Colonel General Chibisov. The Frunze Academy trains staff officers and higher (battalion and up) infantry commanders. Courses have been opened in various fields for officers who had specialized in them during the war. Thus, for example, G-3 courses for former G-3's, G-1 courses for former G-1's, and so on. 25X1
